Summary: Summarize the first part of The Odyssey in a plot line diagram.

Inference: Select a scene that makes the Odyssey an Epic versus just a short story. How does this scene show the traits of an epic story? Support your answer using textual evidence.

A scene that shows the Odyssey is a Epic is line 948. In the story it says, "with crack on crack of thunder, Zeus let fly a bolt against the ship..." (Homer in 948). This shows traits of a epic because it uses supernatural element. In the scene Zeus throws a lightning bolt from the clouds. It talks about Zeus who is a god, making him supernatural. Being able to throw a lightning bolt is not possible for someone who is not a god. Another reason is how much damage the bolt did. The bolt would have to be very powerful for it to kill many people and destroy a whole ship. Overall, line 948 shows that the Odyssey is a Epic because it uses supernatural elements.

In the story "The Cyclops" Odysseus stabs Cyclops in its eye. This is an epic because of the epic traits like Hyperboly, Super Natural and Good vs Bad. The quote, "Lungging it the Cyclops a more than a super natural force helped them; Straight forward they sprang, lifted it, and rammed it deep in his (later eye)" (Homer 1056). Explains that it's an epic case good vs bad & super natural. The reason the Cyclops is bad is he's trapping Odysseus & his men & even eating some of them so Odysseus had to save his left over men.
